I, the undersigned Charles Bradlaugh, beg respectfully to claim to be allowed to affirm as 'a person for the time being by Law permitted to make a solemn Affirmation or Declaration instead of taking an Oath.' Ch. Bradlaugh." And being asked by the Clerk upon what grounds he claimed to make an Affirmation, he answered, by virtue of the Evidence Amendment Acts, 1869 and 1870. Whereupon the Clerk reported to Mr. Speaker that Mr. Bradlaugh, Member for the Borough of Northampton, claimed to make an Affirmation or Declaration, instead of taking the Oath prescribed by Law, in virtue of the provisions of the Evidence Amendment Acts, 1869 and 1870. ——— Mr. Bradlaugh, one of the Members for Northampton, having come to the Table, claiming to take the Oath required by Law, the Clerk explained to him, that after the recent Resolution of the House, he was not authorised to tender him the Oath; and Mr. Bradlaugh having replied that he had no formal knowledge of the said Resolution, the Clerk reported the matter to the Speaker:—Whereupon Mr. Speaker communicated to the honourable Member the Resolution of the House, as follows:—"That, having regard to the Reports and Proceedings of two Select Committees appointed by this House, Mr. Bradlaugh be not permitted to take the Oath or make the Affirmation mentioned in the Statute 29 Vict. c. 19, and the 31 & 32 Vic. c. 72"; and directed the honourable Member to withdraw. Whereupon Mr. Bradlaugh, addressing Mr. Speaker, desired to be heard upon his claim to take the Oath, before the House finally determined to act upon the said Resolution. And Mr. Speaker having stated that his application to be heard must depend upon the pleasure of the House, again directed him to withdraw while his application was considered, and he withdrew accordingly: Motion, That Mr. Bradlaugh be now heard, Withdrawn: —Resolution, That Mr. Bradlaugh be now heard at the Bar of the House. Mr. Bradlaugh thereupon was heard in support of his claim to take the Oath; and then he withdrew; Motion, That Mr. Bradlaugh, the Member for Northampton, having been heard at the Bar in support of his claim to take the Oath, the Resolution of the House relative to his claim be rescinded, Withdrawn. Mr. Speaker, having ascertained that it was the pleasure of the House that Mr. Bradlaugh should be called in,—Mr. Bradlaugh was accordingly called in, and Mr. Speaker acquainted him that the House, having heard him at the Bar, had made no further Order concerning his claim; and directed him to withdraw. Whereupon Mr. Bradlaugh insisted upon his right, as a duly elected Member, to take the Oath and his seat, and refused to withdraw. Mr. Speaker repeated his direction that he should withdraw; and Mr. Bradlaugh having expressed his determination to resist the direction of the Chair; Motion, That Mr. Bradlaugh do now withdraw; and Question, on Division, resolved in the Affirmative; Mr. Speaker again called upon Mr. Bradlaugh to withdraw, in obedience to the Order of the House, but he refused to obey the Order of the House, as being against the Law; Mr. Speaker thereupon called on the Serjeant at Arms to remove Mr. Bradlaugh below the Bar; whereupon the Serjeant, having placed his hand on Mr. Bradlaugh, he was conducted below the Bar. Mr. Bradlaugh, however, again advancing within the Bar, and asserting his determination to resist the Order of the House:—Motion, That Mr. Bradlaugh, having disobeyed the Order, and resisted the authority of this House, be for his said offence taken into the custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House; and that Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant accordingly; Motion, That the Debate be now adjourned, withdrawn; Question again proposed; Motion, That the Debate be now adjourned; and Question, on Division, negatived; Question put, and, on Division, resolved in the Affirmative:—Order, That Mr. Bradlaugh, having disobeyed the Order, and resisted the authority of this House, be for his said offence taken into the custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House; and that Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant accordingly, 235. The Serjeant at Arms informs the House that he had taken Mr. Bradlaugh into his custody, 236:—Resolution, That this House having committed Mr. Bradlaugh to the custody of the Serjeant at Arms on account of his disobedience of the Orders of the House, and of his resistance to its authority, and having thereby supported its order and asserted its authority, Mr. Bradlaugh be discharged from the custody of the Serjeant at Arms, 241.

Mr. Plimsoll rose in his place before the Orders of the Day were read, to make a personal explanation in regard to the Complaint made to the House on Tuesday last; he expressed his regret that he had used, in the printed placards referred to in that Complaint, any expressions which were offensive to Members of this House; he withdrew those expressions, and made an apology to those Members and to the House, and then he withdrew; Debate resumed; Motion withdrawn,—Motion, That, in the opinion of this House, the conduct of the honourable Member for Derby in publishing printed placards denouncing the part taken by two honourable Members of this House in the Proceedings of the House was calculated to interfere with the due discharge of the duties of a Member of this House, and is a breach of its privileges, &c.; Previous Question put, and, on Division, resolved in the Affirmative; Main Question put, and, on Division, agreed to:—Resolution, That, in the opinion of this House, the conduct of the honourable Member for Derby in publishing printed placards denouncing the part taken by two honourable Members of this House in the proceedings of the House was calculated to interfere with the due discharge of the duties of a Member of this House, and is a breach of its Privileges:—But this House, having regard to the withdrawal by the honourable Member for Derby of the expressions to which the honourable Member for Westminster has drawn its attention, is of opinion that no further action on its part is necessary, 54.

——— (Major Jocelyn and Earl Cadogan); Complaint being made by Mr. Sullivan, Member for the County of Louth, of language reported in the "Westminster and Chelsea News," of the 21st of February, to have been used by Major Jocelyn at a meeting of the Chelsea Conservative Association, "denouncing the action of Sir Charles Dilke," Member for Chelsea, "in joining an unholy alliance, and giving his vote to a despicable lot of Irish rebels"; and also of the conduct of the Earl Cadogan, a Peer of Parliament, at the said meeting, in attempting, as reported in the said newspaper, to influence the Election of Members to serve in this House; the said newspaper was delivered in, and the paragraphs complained of read; Motion, That the language of Major Jocelyn, complained of to this House, is a breach of Privilege, and that the conduct of the Earl Cadogan, as complained of to the House, is also a breach of the Privileges of this House; Previous Question put, and, on Division, Negatived, 57.

The Serjeant at Arms brought Charles Edmund Grissell to the Bar of the House:—Whereupon Mr. Speaker addressed the prisoner as followeth:—Charles Edmund Grissell, your conduct last Session in connection with the inquiry before a Committee on a Private Bill was the subject of patient inquiry by a Select Committee of this House, which Committee came to the following conclusion:—"Your Committee are unanimously of opinion that Mr. Charles Edmund Grissell, in asserting that he could control the decisions of the Committee on the Tower High Level Bridge (Metropolis) Bill, and in the offer that he made to do so, was guilty of a breach of the Privileges of the House." ——————— acquaints the House, That he had issued Warrants for New Writs during the recess, 3.

——————— reminds the House, That, according to the ordinary practice, when complaints are made of articles in newspapers, the passages complained of are read by the Clerk to the House; but, as the Honourable Member for Dungarvan had brought up a series of newspapers against which he had made his complaint, he felt that, if he were to call on the Clerk at the Table to read all those articles, he should be trifling with the House, and he should therefore take leave to depart from the ordinary course, and would proceed to put the Question upon the Honourable Member's Motion to the House, 57.

——————— addresses a prisoner as followeth:—Charles Edmund Grissell, your conduct last Session in connection with the inquiry before a Committee on a Private Bill was the subject of patient inquiry by a Select Committee of this House, which Committee came to the following conclusion:—"Your Committee are unanimously of opinion that Mr. Charles Edmund Grissell, in asserting that he could control the decisions of the Committee on the Tower High Level Bridge (Metropolis) Bill, and in the offer that he made to do so, was guilty of a breach of the Privileges of the House." Thereupon an Order was made by this House for your attendance before this House. That Order was disobeyed. Again you evaded the Warrant issued for your apprehension by proceeding beyond the jurisdiction of this House, and two days before the prorogation of Parliament you returned to this Country and placed yourself within reach of my Warrant. You were taken into custody just before the prorogation, and on the prorogation of Parliament you were discharged. This House has now been in Session for nearly four weeks, and you have delayed until yesterday, when public notice had been taken of your conduct, to make your submission. This House, nevertheless, is willing to hear any explanation which you may think proper to offer to it, with respect to your conduct, 76.

——————— to take the Chair this day at Twelve of the clock, 67.

——————— to issue his Warrants for New Writs, 4, 53, 66.

——— puts the House in mind that the first thing to be done is to take and subscribe the Oath required by Law, 123.

——— takes the Oath, standing upon the upper step of the Chair, 123.

——— goes up to the House of Peers,—At the opening of the Session, 123.——On other occasions, 123, 129, 204, &c.——At the close of the Session, 436.

——— resumes the Chair at a quarter before Four o'clock, having returned from the House of Peers, 129.

——— resumes the Chair, and the Chairman of a Committee of the whole House reports, That Mr. Callan, Member for the County of Louth, had been named by him to the Committee as disregarding the authority of the Chair, &c., 422.

——— adjourns the House without first putting the Question, Forty Members not being present, 281, &c.

——— lays upon the Table,—Rules, Orders, and Forms of Proceedings of the House, 132.——List of Bills, Reports, &c., printed by Order of the House, 436.——Reports from Examiners, 169, 184, &c. (Vide Examiners). Certificate from the Chief Clerk of the Private Bill Office, That the Declarations and Certificates required by the Standing Orders of the House of the 11th day of March in the last Session of Parliament, have been duly deposited in respect of Private Bills brought from the House of Lords, 155.

——— communicates to a Member a Resolution of the House, 235.

——— informs a Member (Mr. O'Donnell), that, as a Question he had put to the Under Secretary of State contained grave charges against the French Ambassador, any further Statement thereon should be brought before the House by way of Motion, after due Notice given, and not made under cover of a Motion for an Adjournment; and the Member for Dungarvan nevertheless proceeding to address the House upon the matter of his Question, 206.

——— informs a Member (Mr. Bradlaugh) that if he desired to address the House in explanation of his claim to make an Affirmation or Declaration instead of taking the Oath prescribed by Law, he might be permitted to do so, 124.

——— addresses the House as follows:—I have now formally to acquaint the House that a Member (Mr. Bradlaugh) claims to make an Affirmation or Declaration instead of the Oath prescribed by Law. He founds this claim upon the terms of the fourth Clause of the Act 29th & 30th Victoria, c. 19, and the Evidence Amendment Acts, 1869 and 1870. I have not considered myself justified in determining this claim myself, having grave doubts on the construction of the Acts above stated; but desire to refer the matter to the judgment of the House, 124.

——— states that the application of a Member (Mr. Bradlaugh) to be heard must depend upon the pleasure of the House, and again directs him to withdraw while his application was considered, 235.

——— having ascertained that it was the pleasure of the House that a Member (Mr. Bradlaugh) should be called in, he was accordingly called in, and Mr. Speaker acquainted him that the House, having heard him at the Bar, had made no further Order concerning his claim; and directed him to withdraw; whereupon Mr. Bradlaugh insisted upon his right, as a duly elected Member, to take the Oath and his seat, and refused to withdraw; Mr. Speaker repeated his direction that he should withdraw; and Mr. Bradlaugh having expressed his determination to resist the direction of the Chair, 235.

——— again calls upon the Member to withdraw, in obedience to the Order of the House, but he refused to obey the Order of the House, as being against the Law; thereupon calls on the Serjeant-at-Arms to remove the Member below the Bar, 235.

——— informs the House that he had received Certificates and Reports from the Judges selected for the trial of Election Petitions, 177, 189, 192, 203, 210, 211, 214, 217, 227, 232, 239, 240, 245, 252, 258, 264, 270, 279, 289, 312, 331, 350, 356, 374. ——— informs the House that he had received a Letter from Mr. Justice Lush and Mr. Justice Manisty, referring to an oversight in their Supplementary Report relative to the Election for the City of Chester, 420.

——— acquaints the House that he had received a Letter from a Member returned for three places, making his election, 128.

——— calls the attention of the House to the fact that an Amendment, as moved, was not relevant to the subject-matter of a Bill, and therefore could not be put from the Chair, 177.

——— to appoint the printing of the Votes and Proceedings, having first perused the same, 125.

——— to license the printing of the Journal, 149.

——— to issue his Warrants for New Writs, &c., 6, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 160, 212, 224, 237, 241, 261, 270, 276, 280, 290, 294, 321, 328, 344.
